Synonyms & Antonyms

A synonym is a word that has the same or almost the same meaning as another word. For example, a synonym for the word smart is intelligent.

An antonym is a word that has the opposite meaning of another word. For example, an antonym for the word good is bad.

Directions: Match the word in the middle with its synonym and its antonym.

Synonym	Word	Antonym
query	ordinary	cowardly
shining	brave	answer
courageous	relaxed	stressed
victor	bright	loser
calm	question	strange
normal	winner	dark

Directions: Are the two words synonyms or antonyms? If they are synonyms, circle S. If they are antonyms, circle A.

1. difference | similarity      S    A
2. conclude | finish          S    A
3. rough | smooth            S    A
4. pacify | agitate            S    A

Have you ever tried giraffe jam or sock jam? There are some jars with who knows what inside on our shelves! Let's revise the spelling of the words which your students have recently learnt in a fun and productive way! All they need is to unscramble the main ingredients and sign the labels (download the file to read the details about how to use the material). The pack includes shelves with the following topics: clothes, food, bedroom, school things, animals, emotions, actions, colours and cvc words. Page 2: Nature and My Food Needs - DR1.3 Saskatchewan Student drawing/writing book to explore the different foods we eat and how these foods come from nature. Students can draw their responses and label to provide differentiation and writing practice. Easy to pair with available books or videos. Can do one page or multiple pages at a time. I would likely teach a short lesson about the page, and then we would work on the corresponding page. Easy to leave for a substitute teacher. It is an editable powerpoint so you can change as needed and then print. Calculating Macromolecules from Nutrition Fact Labels: This worksheet has students calculate how many macromolecules are in various foods based off their nutrition fact labels. Students just have to multiply the fats/lipids x 9, carbohydrates x 4, proteins x 4. To extend this, you could always have students highlight the macromolecules in the labels. Or you could bring in real food labels to have students work with. Practice desayuno/breakfast foods in Spanish. List, draw, label, write, and create! Students will complete: 1) "Yo como" "Yo no como" graphic organizer 2) Draw their typical breakfast and label in Spanish 3) Write a guided paragraph about their breakfast 4) Create their own menu No prep! Great for elementary but applicable to any food novice! Was this helpful? Please leave a review! Las Comidas / The Food by This a simple worksheet where children practice vocabulary related to food in different ways. Students need to label pictures, complete the words, state what they like or don't like. There is a little Sop de letras ( word search in case you need a 5 minute break). Students are welcome to color the food if they want to to review the colors. Students can review geography, colors, food and adjective agreement in Spanish with this simple activity on exports. They will also learn what countries export what everyday products. Instructions: -Label the Spanish-speaking countries on the map. -Finish the sentences about which foods and other products come from which countries with a color. -Color in a picture of each listed product. -Cut & paste each picture onto the appropriate section of the map. Grades: Types: Food & Nutrition- Oreo Worksheet by This worksheet is designed to take a closer look at food labels. The worksheet focuses on the beloved cookie- THE OREO. It walks students through looking at the ingredients and the nutrition information. Animal Icons and Speech Bubbles EL K M3.U3.L7 by Working with the EL curriculum but your students need more scaffolding than a blank sheet of paper? Check out this supplemental worksheet to be used during Module 3 (Trees Are Alive) Unit 3 Lesson 7. Your student will first need to identify which animals depend on their small group's tree, then find the name of the animal and label it, and last write what food it gets from their tree. This cute visual helps students ground their learning, referring to the text to choose the correct animals, label. Subjects: Win Win! Students will decipher which nutrient will best help in various situations, practice reading a food label AND apply it by choosing a healthful food product. Is the product a good choice? Check with a fun app called Fooducate! Teach the health skill "Accessing Valid Information" by sending students on a scavenger hunt! Let students share their choices to increase their knowledge base! This lesson can be done with or without actual labels as the fooducate website has the nutrition info. Types: Mis comidas favoritas | Spanish food activity by This is a great review activity, homework assignment, or low-key assessment to use during any unit about Spanish food vocabulary. Have students draw and label their favorite meals. You can then collect them for a quick display, or have students interview each other about their favorites for an oral follow-up activity. Quick and easy! This also makes a good filler activity for students who complete in-class work or a test early. My Thanksgiving Plate Writing Activity by Kindergarten and Kindness This is a great writing activity for Thanksgiving! Included are vocabulary words for students to reference and two versions of the worksheet. On the worksheet is a word bank for students to reference, and with two versions of the worksheet you can differentiate this activity for your students! This is an excellent way to get your students writing through illustrations and a mentor sentence to trace. I have my students label the food on their plate as well to encourage more writing. Hope you and Grocery Shopping Skill Practice by This activity was designed for students with disabilities to practice the practical life skill of grocery shopping. I have gathered empty food containers and made a "student grocery store." I made price labels for all the items. The activity involves them reading the list, finding the items, writing down the price, adding up all the items, writing the total, writing the next-dollar (if total is $8.67, they would write $9). Subjects: Main Idea Graphic Organizer by This Main Idea graphic organizer is the perfect way to reinforce this skill in your class. Students can use this resource with any text. They will label the characters, setting, problem, solution, and key details to help them identify the main idea of the story. This resource serves as a great whole group, small group, or center activity. I know your students will enjoy this engaging and educational resource. Click this Main Idea Bundle for over 15 pages of main idea graphic organizers and FREE Reindeer Holiday Activities by Your students will love making "Magic Reindeer Food" and completing fun reindeer activities this holiday season! Included in this freebie are the following printables: 1. Magic Reindeer Food labels in color and B&W (with directions) 2. Parts of a Reindeer (cut and paste) 3. Rainbow Reindeer (read and color) 4. R is for Reindeer (find and trace) 5. 9 Little Reindeer (all about the number 9) To learn more about how we use this resource, read our blog post here. Seasons Greetings, Curriculum Castle Conn: Are your students excited to write and share what they ate over the Thanksgiving holiday? This printable activity will give your earliest writers a chance to print, describe and label the food they feasted on over the Thanksgiving holiday. Students will be able to draw, color, label and complete a sentence describing their bountiful feast they enjoyed on Thanksgiving. This activity comes with 1 printable page in .png format. It also has a large area for students to creatively draw the treats! Animal Habitats The Reef FREE DOWNLOAD by This download is two sample pages from the Animal Habitats - The Reef pack and contains two informative coloring sheets for you to use with your students. One sheet contains sea creatures only and the second sheet contains the sea creatures with labels. The full pack can be found here and contains: Teaching instructions and lesson suggestions The Reef coloring sheet Fact Sheets: Habitats, Coral, The Great Barrier Reef Animal Fact Sheets: Clownfish, Giant Clam, Angelfish, Whitetip Reef Shark, Hermit Brown Bag It! Healthy Foods by This is a great Earth Day or nutrition, healthy foods activity. Discuss healthy foods with your students and what choices they should make in order to fill up a bag lunch. Show them food labels and what to look for that's nutritional and what's not good to consume. Working in small groups they can make lists of foods by category, on their mini posters or draw pictures of them. Ask them to bring empty cereal boxes to school and compare the ingredients in them. Create a Brown Bag It word wall! The Help your students identify their feelings and thoughts with Emojis! Emojis are visual representations of feelings online. Now you can use the visual power of emojis in your classroom. Using emoji will help them label different emotions and communicate feelings. Later, you can use them in classroom behavior management. Emoji-themed work can also be your bridge between technology and print. Tell your principal that you are preparing your students for tech integration. Most of all, Emojis are fun! Farm Animal Activities by Includes: -Farm with barn and grass (in color) -Farm animal bingo (in color) -Farm animal cut-outs (in color) -Farm animal "Animals in the Barn" make-it- and color-it-yourself book (black and white) -Label the farm animals worksheet (black and white) -Label the food the farm animals eat worksheet (black and white) -Three farm animal story rhymes (in color) -Piggy bank animal craft directions (in color) -Farm animal scavenger hunt questions and answers (clues are given and the child must guess the animal) -This is a FREE WEEK from my fifth daily grammar pack. These worksheets will help students master nouns, verbs, adjectives, articles, conjunctions, quotation marks, alphabetical order, capitalization, and so much more in only ten minutes a day. These daily worksheets are perfect for first, second and third grade review. I designed the activities so that children can complete these worksheets independently 90% of the time. I formatted the skills and standards to be the same multiple days in a row to live worksheets > English Finish!! Please allow access to the microphone Look at the top of your web browser.
